

2006 Joe Cheves Junior Invitational @ Mimosa Hills

Morganton, N.C. Final Results Sept. 9-10, 2006

Jacob Burger (2008) of Orangeburg, SC came across the border to capture the fourth annual Joe Cheves Junior Invitational @ Mimosa Hills CC in Morganton, NC. Burger, who earlier in the summer captured the South Carolina Junior Championship and was the CGA Carolinas Junior runnerup, set a new tournament scoring record in the process, firing 70-68 for a six-under 138 total. Charlotte's Stefan Brewer (68-71 / 2009) and McCuen Elmore (69-70 / 2007) of Cheraw, SC shared runner-up honors. Brewer displayed the kind of integrity and honesty that makes golf a great test of character. After opening with 68, he shot 71 in the final round, which momentarily tied Burger for the championship. Brewer called a penalty on himself in the scorer's tent, which resulted in a one-shot penalty added to his score. Claremont's Lance Wheeler (73-67 / 2007) had the tournament's best round, posting a final-round 67 that vaulted him into a tie for fourth with Charlotte's Robert Burrow (71-69 / 2007). A total of 16 players in the 63-player field shot par or better over the 77-year old Mimosa Hills layout that played at par 72 and 6,650 yards.

After opening the 2006 Joe Cheves Junior Invitational with a two-under par 70, Alex Rankin (2007) cruised to a four-shot victory in the fourth annual event at Mimosa Hills. The 2006 United States Junior qualifier, posted 76 in the final round to finish at two-over par for the tournament. Rankin's 70 is the second lowest round in the history of the Joe Cheves Junior. Blair Lamb shot a final round 68 in 2004 to earn a one-shot victory. A trio of players finished second at 150. Each shot the identical 18 hole score each day. Jordan Ridge (2007) of Pinehurst, Courtney Gunter (2009) of Matthews and Chapel Hill's Michelle Ahn (2009) each posted 76-74. Another trio of players — Elizabeth Freeman (77-74 / 2007), Faith Hardison (75-76 / 2009), and Virginia Mayer (73-78 / 2008) — finished at 151.
