

2007 Joe Cheves Junior Invitational @ Mimosa Hills

Morganton, N.C. Final Scores Sept. 8-9, 2007

Austin Ernst wrapped up a torrid summer of golf when she cruised to an easy eight-shot victory at the Fifth Joe Cheves Junior. The South Carolina Junior Match Play champion and her state's top ranked player shot 70-71 for a three-under par total of 141. Ernst, a prep sophomore, was a 2007 United States Junior qualifier. Bahama's Meghan Moore, the No. 1 ranked player in North Carolina, finished second with 78-71=149. Behind eight shots to begin the day, Moore started her final round birdie-birdie-eagle and was 5-under after eight holes. She got to within three shots of Ernst, but a double-bogey on the par three ninth hole derailed any chance to catch the unflappable Ernst. Hayley Stephens of Greer, SC finished third closing with 73 to go with her first round 83. A quartet of golfers tied for fourth at 157 — Katherine Perry (80-77) of Cary, NC, Rachel Uremovich (80-77) of Hilton Head, SC, Courtney Taylor (79-78) of Gastonia, NC, and Kaitlyn Rohrback (78-79) of Crofton, Md.

Tuscola High School senior Drew Page was as hot as the temperature at Mimosa Hills in winning the Fifth Joe Cheves Junior Invitational. Page, an Oklahoma State University commitment, fired 68-67, setting a new tournament scoring record at nine-under par. Steady all weekend, Page was never seriously challenged. Page produced 11 birdies and one eagle, to just four bogies on the weekend. Corbin Mills of Easley, SC and high school frosh Billy Herring of Lillington finished second. Mills shot 74-65, while Herring fired 71-68. Mills, a Clemson commitment for the fall of 2009, set a new 18-hole scoring record at the event with his 65. High school sophomores Michael Cromie of Cary, NC (73-68) and Austin Cody of North Charleston, SC (72-69), along with junior Patrick Lundy of Little River, SC (71-70=141) tied for third.
